Best New Salon Adele

Stylist Amy Quackenbush has returned to her roots: that is, to preventing our roots from showing. In previous years, the former Suede owner found she was spending less and less time styling, so she opened up chic new salon Adele in Fremont in February to get back behind the chair. Clients eagerly plunk down in the retro salon chairs for, among other stellar services, Quackenbush's new signature "Diamond Cut" (starting at $75), a precision cut and a humectants-rich conditioning glaze.
